I'll save the world when I'm a little older am C G em
I'll save some lives, well maybe not today
C F G em
Stand up and fight when I'm a little bolder G em am
Whatever they may think, I'll walk my way.
F dm C am
And if I'm not the people's greatest hero
F dm C am
or maybe public enemy number one,
F dm C am
at least I hope I'll not end up a zero am G am
and even if, at least I'll be some fun.

C am G
But I will leave a mark, and if it's tiny
C am G
and I will be the spark to light some eyes
C F G
and even if you think that I sound whiny
dm F E7
that I made up pathetic little lies
am G am
I'll be the one last firefly that flies.

I'll share my dreams with all that long for stories
I'll share my worlds with those that need a home Spread joy and pain and thrill and fear and glory and take you to the land within my tome.
And if I'm not the century's greatest writer and if the reviews hate me on and on I hope I'll turn at least a few lives brighter and well, if not, at least I had some fun.

But I will leave a mark, and if it's tiny
and I will be the spark to light some eyes
and even if you think that I sound whiny
that I made up pathetic little lies
I'll be the one last firefly that flies.

Firefly

I'll be the breeder of a new generation to save the world if I have failed to do I do not bother age, or sex, or nation as long as what I love is born anew.
And if I'm not the history's greatest mother and if my genepool's gone when I am gone I hope my thoughts will pass on to some other Grab hold of them - I promise, they are fun.

But I will leave a mark, and if it's tiny
and I will be the spark to light some eyes
and even if you think that I sound whiny
that I made up pathetic little lies
I'll be the one last firefly that flies
and I'll pass on my light before it dies.
