

My Best Friend's Blood

am C am
I could not kill you, brother, your blood I cannot shed C am
I'll never rip your heart out and still I wish you dead dm am
If we would ever meet again, I'd fight with gun, with knife dm E7
there'll never be a chance again for me to take your life.

you once have been my brother, your blood runs in my vein so if I bring myself to death, you are the one who's slain I'll gladly slit my wrists for you, if only you will bleed
I would have loved to take your life, but nevermore we'll meet am

pray do you feel it thumping?
C gis
pray do you feel the pain?
dm am
your blood is running down my hands
dm am
your blood is red as rain

look here this edge is dripping, the floor is turning wet the light is growing darker, I feel I'm turning dead but it is not as if I die, that thing is up to you for since you took my life away, it's all that I can do

pray do you feel it thumping?
pray do you feel the pain?
your blood is running down my hands

pray do you feel the pain?
your blood is running down my hands
your blood is red as rain ...
